Classroom "Brit" - Covenant

I, Debi Mishael, promise to do the following:

I promise to respect you, the student, at all times. I will listen to your opinions and ideas with genuine interest.

I promise to design class lessons that are engaging and interesting. The activities will be interactive and creative. I will not come to class prepared only to lecture to you.

We, the students of Congregation Brith Shalom's 8th Grade, promise to do the following:

We promise to respect all members of our class, including other students, our teacher, our synagogue and ourselves, at all times.

We promise to come to class with an open mind and a willingness to share our opinions and a readiness to listen to others. We also reserve the right not to contribute on occasion without having to offer detailed explanations for our lack of participation.

We promise NEVER to ridicule, mock, tease or otherwise "put-down" our fellow classmates for any reason.
